I. THE CHERISHED HEART OF GOD: EQUIPPED TO LOVE JESUS (4:1-8)

- A. In Song 4:1-5, Solomon gave eight characteristics of the Shulamite maiden that spoke of her physical beauty. These characteristics can also be seen as symbolic of spiritual characteristics. In her season of discipline (3:1-2) the King described her beauty (4:1-5), even while her obedience was immature. He saw her sincere desire to obey before it was fully manifested in her character. This motivated her to commit to obey Him by rising up to go to the mountains with Him (4:6).

¹Behold, you are fair [beautiful], My love...you have dove's eyes...your hair is like a flock of goats...²Your teeth are like shorn sheep...³Your lips are like...scarlet, and your mouth is lovely. Your temples...are like a piece of pomegranate. ⁴Your neck is like the tower of David...⁵Your breasts are like fawns...⁶I will go my way to the mountain... (Song 4:1-6)

1. The King spoke to her in agricultural language that was familiar in her day. The Scripture gives insight into the meaning of the symbols.
2. In interpreting this passage spiritually, we see the Lord affirming eight “budding virtues” in the Bride’s life. Each godly virtue starts out in “seed form” as a sincere desire to obey.

Well we are going to look at the whole chapter so I am going to have to skip a few points and just kind of hover around a few and leave you to read the notes. We have the additional material normally with every session, this one we have sixteen pages of additional material that is not on these notes. The reason I give you that because I do not want to cover it in the sessions here. For those that are really eager and they say, hey I want to break this down a little bit more I want to give you something to look at if you want it.

Well it starts off if you remember in the last session Song of Solomon 3 the Bride was being disciplined because she had drawn back from a place of obedience. Now the reason she drew back was because of fear. The point we made over and over is that spiritual immaturity is not the same thing as rebellion. The Lord loves us and actually enjoys us in our immaturity while He is disciplining us because there is commitment and zeal in His heart for the relationship, not because He is angry. It is very opposite because He has delight and He is committed and He is interested in the relationship.

Well the discipline happened in Song of Solomon 3, now we are in Song of Solomon 4. In the natural interpretation King Solomon is highlighting eight different characteristics of the Shulamite maiden who would become the Bride. We call her the maiden sometimes and the Bride sometimes, I just use those interchangeably. King Solomon in the natural interpretation is highlighting eight features of her physical beauty.

In the spiritual interpretation those are symbolic of spiritual characteristics. This is where I put a lot of material on the additional notes on the website that I do not want to go into tonight. How we understand the spiritual application of these is we, the Bible interprets the Bible number one. Number two, some of the features are just plain and simple agricultural terms and we can guess what they mean.

So we cannot be 100 percent sure but I think that you can guess in a fairly accurate way as to what is being said spiritually. As long as it is a biblical principle that is established in the New Testament it is not a problem if you get the wrong, you know if you think the teeth and the neck, you get them mixed up. It does not really matter as long as it leads you to obey the Lord in all of the areas of your life.

So in this season of discipline the King is describing her beauty even while her obedience was immature, that is the key point, He sees her sincere desire. In the spiritual interpretation, remember she has not said yes yet fully, not fully but she is wrestling, she wants to obey. The Lord says to her, you are beautiful to me even in the process of rising up, facing your fears to obey Me.

Paragraph two, the Lord is affirming what I call budding virtues. These eight physical virtues in Song of Solomon's natural love song but eight spiritual virtues in the spiritual interpretation, these virtues were not mature they were budding. The Lord calls them forth and He affirms her because they are just even beginning. She does not mature for the next couple chapters actually.

- B. In Song 4:1-5, we see the cherishing heart of Jesus our Bridegroom King. Jesus washes and cherishes His Church. God's cherishing heart for His people is one of the prominent spiritual themes in the Song. The Lord's affirmation in our life breaks the power of accusation.

26...that He might sanctify and cleanse her with the washing of water by the Word, 27that He might present her to Himself a glorious church...29For no one ever hated his own flesh, but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord does the church. (Eph. 5:26-29)

Paragraph B., in Song of Solomon 4:1-5 we see the cherishing heart of Jesus, we see His cherishing heart. I love that phrase, His cherishing heart. I find it in Ephesians 5:29 where it talks about Jesus, He cherishes the Church. He nourishes and cherishes, He washes the Church. Beloved the way He washes the Church, you can read that passage more on you, He washes us by the Word of God. What part of the God? The part of the Word of God that reveals how much He cherishes us, that is why I like to talk about the Bridegroom God and our identity as the cherished Bride. We feel His tender affirmation over us even in our immaturity as we are growing and maturing. Now God's cherishing heart is one of the prominent themes of this eight chapter love song called the Song of Solomon.

- C. The Lord transforms His people by cherishing them. He removes the stain of shame from our heart. One way that He cherishes His people is by affirming the budding virtues in their lives.

Paragraph C., the Lord transforms His people, He washes us by cherishing us, that is not the only way but I believe that is the primary way. The reason this is so important because many believers do not have any paradigm, any perspective that He is cherishing them. They just, when they look up and they are thinking, oh no, am I in big trouble now. You know what? It is not going to work, I might as well just dial down trying to be obedient and just acclimate to a carnal lifestyle because it is never going to work anyway.

Many people give up the vision of going hard and whole hearted for God because they just think it is not going to work so why try? They do not know that the Lord is actually cherishing every step, every movement of their heart. He is going, oh my beloved look at that, you are coming forth. He affirms it and this love song really highlights that, the spiritual interpretation of it.

Paragraph C., He removes the stain of shame from our heart. There is shame that the, that happens when we sin because of our own fallenness. He wants to wash that away by saying, do you know how sufficient My blood is and do you know how intense My heart is for you? Do you understand that? There is no need for you to put yourself on probation for a few months to kind of prove that you love Me. It is the revelation of His love that removes the stain of shame away from our heart.

- D. Jesus corrects, rebukes, and calls us to greater zeal and repentance with tender love (Rev. 3:19) as He invites us to deeper fellowship (Rev. 3:20) and partnership with Him (Rev. 3:21). This is also the spirit in which His people are to correct, rebuke, and call others to repentance.

¹⁹As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten. Therefore be zealous and repent...²⁰I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him...²¹To him who overcomes I will grant to sit with Me on My throne... (Rev. 3:19-21)

Now I believe one of the most classic passages on God's discipline and the way God motivates, the way Jesus motivates is Revelation 3. You know it is the Laodicean church, they are compromising, they are spiritually passive, verse 19. He tells them, He goes, I want you to repent. He goes, but as many as I love I rebuke. He is rebuking them, He is chastening them, that means disciplining them. He is saying, I want you more zealous, I want you on fire for Me, and I want you to repent.

I mean when, if someone rebukes you, disciplines you, tells you to get zealous and tells you to repent in the human sense you go, oh no I am in big trouble. He goes, in verse 20-21, He says, let Me tell you why because I want to, I want to have dinner with you, I want to share a meal with you. I want you to come closer to Me and I am beckoning you to repent because it is My desire to fellowship deeply with you and to partner with you in a deeper way. He invites us to deeper partnership and deeper fellowship with Himself.

So deeper fellowship is what He is calling us to and that is the way He has always motivating us though many of us, that is not how we feel motivated. We feel like He is rebuking us because we are bad and the truth is He is rebuking us because He wants deeper fellowship and He wants to have dinner with us. He wants to open His heart to us because He likes us so much.

- E. The Laodicean church was self-satisfied, spiritually passive, and proud. They had taken their relationship with Jesus for granted. Yet Jesus pursued them, knocking on the door and lifting His voice to beckon them to return by offering to have dinner and to share His resources with them.
- F. The devil assaults us with accusation to influence us to give up in despair (Rev. 12:10). The devil wants us to feel like hopeless hypocrites. He knows that feeling accused with the fear of being rejected by God will hinder our motivation to love. Being preoccupied with condemnation, failure, and shame hinders us from walking with the Lord effectively.

¹⁰...for the accuser of our brethren, who accused them before our God day and night, has been cast down. (Rev. 12:10)

Top of page two, the Devil assaults us with accusation, I mean that is the age old strategy. He has done it for thousands of years, he assaults us with accusation, he wants us to give up in despair. I hear it all the time, well meaning believers, they just say, I just, you know it is not worth it, it is not worth. They want to give up in despair because they feel accused. The Bible calls him the accuser. He is unrelenting, he never stops and he will even use your own thought processes to sting your heart and to strike you. He wants you to feel like a hopeless hypocrite because he knows if you feel accused you will not be motivated to love.

If you feel accused you will lose your motivation because people that are preoccupied with condemnation, people that are preoccupied with shame it hinders their ability to walk after God. He wants you preoccupied with condemnation and failure, he wants that to be the main issue on your mind, not how He feels about you and how He is beckoning you to come closer.

- G. The Lord makes His people feel beautiful and loved in the grace of God, even while they are growing. When we feel cherished, we become confident in our love for Jesus.
- H. The whole truth about our life includes so much more than what we have done wrong. Our obedience begins when we sincerely set our heart to obey Him, not just after we gain full victory in an area of our life. We can confidently feel His pleasure in each step of the growth process. Jesus does not define our life by our struggles. He sees more than our outward actions. He defines us by what we set our heart on and by our longing to love Him.

Paragraph H., somebody says, well I want to tell the truth. Well that is good because the whole truth about your life is so much more than what we have done wrong. The whole truth about you is not just what you have done wrong, it is how you are seeking to do right, that is the truth about you too, not just how much you came up short but how sincere. You were seriously wanting to obey Him in that area and to follow through with love.

Beloved, the good news is, Paragraph H., our obedience begins when we sincerely set our heart. Our obedience does not begin only when it is fully mature, it actually begins when the seed is there. The plant begins when the seed goes in the ground not when the fruit is full, comes to fullness. The plant actually begins when the seed is in the ground.

- I. The Lord relates to us on the basis of grace. This includes relating to us according to what we long to be, not according to what we fail to do. He sees our heart more clearly than we see it.
5...judge nothing...until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each one's praise will come from God. (1 Cor. 4:5)

Paragraph I., the whole message of grace, I mean part of it is that Jesus relates to us according to what we long to be. What do you long to be? I mean when you get quiet what do you really want to be? Well I want to do this in my ministry, that is not what I am asking you. What do you long to be? Oh I want to be faithful to the Lord, I want my heart, I want to love purity. I do not but I want to, I really want to. I want to love the Word, I do not love the Word right now, I want to. I want to be close to Him.

Beloved, I have good news to you, part of the grace message is that He relates to us according to what we long to do, to be not just what we fail to do. It is a whole different picture of God, a whole different paradigm of God. He does not just relate to us according to what we fail to do.

One of my favorite verses on this theme is right here, 1 Corinthians 4. Paul gives them the shock of their life, I mean the shock, it shocked them. He says, hold off on judging. He is talking in 1 Corinthians 4:5 about judging themselves actually, even about judging themselves he said, hold off, hold off. He goes, until the Lord comes. He says, two things are going to happen, He is going to bring to light the bad stuff, He is going to bring to light bad stuff that is not repented of or bad stuff in the lives of unbelievers when they stand before Him, they will be judged on the things they did.

He goes, that is not it, He is also going to reveal, here it is, the counsels of the heart. Now you could put the word, the motives of the heart. You could put another word, probably it is even better, the intention of the heart, what you are trying to do. The intention is probably better than motives, that is a good thing.

Then, here is the shock of their life, when God reveals the intentions of your heart everyone's praise will come from God. I can imagine them saying, praise? Do you not mean our rebuke will come from God? When all the secrets of our heart come out will we not be in the biggest trouble imaginable? Paul goes, well no, actually when all the secrets come out the secret of how you are longing to obey Him will come out and He will praise you. The word praise there, the idea is He will give you affirmation, He will tell you how He feels about the way that you carried heart.

- J. He sees the seeds of character in us and calls forth things that do not yet exist in fullness as though they did. He sees the fullness of our love even when it is in seed form as a budding virtue.

17God, who...calls those things which do not exist as though they did... (Rom. 4:17)

Paragraph J., He sees the seeds of character in us before the fullness of the fruit. My point is, He does not only enjoy the relationship once we are mature, He actually enjoys us each stage of the way when we are sincerely seeking to follow Him. We are sincere but we are coming up short. He calls forth things that do not yet exist in their fullness.

- K. While Israel was being attacked by a mighty Midianite army, Gideon hid in the winepress in fear (Judg. 6:11-12). An angel appeared to him and called him a mighty man of valor. The Lord saw in Gideon what he could not see in himself—seeds of faith and courage that he was not yet operating in. The Lord named Gideon according to what he would become in the future, and he went on to become one of Israel's great military leaders.

12And the Angel of the LORD appeared to him, and said to him, "The LORD is with you, you mighty man of valor!" (Judg. 6:12)

Like for instance, Paragraph K., I love this analogy, I mean this illustration with Gideon. You read the story of Gideon in Judges 6. The nation of Israel was being attacked by the enemy, Gideon was hiding in fear. The Midianite army, the neighbors were attacking, I mean this mighty army. They were out numbered by this fierce army of the enemy and Gideon is hiding, the angel appears and says, O mighty man of valor. Gideon looks right, he looks left, he goes, who me? He goes, yeah mighty man of valor. I am hiding right now. The Lord saw in Gideon what Gideon could not see in himself. The Lord saw seeds of courage in a man that was not operating in the courage yet. Well like, God named him according to what he would become and he did become one of the great military leaders of Israel but at that time I mean his resume was bad and he was trembling in fear hiding.

Lord, the angel visits and says, mighty man of valor, mighty woman of God? Me, are you kidding? I am stuck on this, I am stuck on that, I am filled with fear, I am consumed with myself, I got tons of shame. Mighty woman of God arise O lover of God, you love Me with all of your heart. I do? Ugh. Well your all is small but it is still your all right now. You go like, really? Well if I thought He was talking to me that way I would run to Him, I would not run from Him.

- L. Jesus called Peter a rock or one who was reliable and stable (Mt. 16:18). He knew Peter would one day deny Him, but He also saw the seeds of stability in Peter and so named him the Rock.

Paragraph L., Jesus called Peter the rock or the one who is reliable and stable. The rock meant, the idea meant you are the reliable one, you are the stable one. He knew Peter would deny Him to a little servant girl but He said, you are the rock. When Peter denied Him he goes, I am not the rock. He goes, yes you are, yes you really are. Well how could you say I am the rock, I denied You. Because I see the seeds of what is in your heart, you are going to be okay.

Actually you will read the notes, Peter stumbled again in a major way some years down the road as an anointed apostle. He fell into hypocrisy for a short season and Paul rebuked him. I tell you he was still the rock, he was still the stable one from God's point of view. Jesus named him that with full knowledge.

- M. We see the Lord's "editing process" in Abraham's life, saying that he never wavered in his faith.

²⁰He did not waver at the promise of God through unbelief... (Rom. 4:20)

I have in Paragraph M., I love God's editing process. He looked at Abraham you know, Romans 4 and says, and Abraham did not waver. Well when I read the Word of God it looked like Abraham wavered a couple big times. I mean some of the things Abraham did in my home, that is called wavering. I go, he did not waver? Paul did you know the story of Abraham, I mean did you skip that in your Hebrew class? No I did not but God saw more than wavering, He saw a man that pressed in and he constantly came back and took hold of. The final summary is he did not waver.

Whoa, if that is how You do it, if that is how You look at life, hey I like this, I, this, I can do this. This is not, one guy will take this kind of teaching of grace and they will, it will just validate a life of compromise, that is not the examples I am giving. These guys that God called this and these women, they went on to press into the Lord. This is a truth that enables us not to quit in despair in the early days or the later days.

- N. David's failures are recorded in the Scripture. Yet God's testimony of his life was that David did all of God's will and fulfilled God's purpose (Acts 13:22, 36).

²²He raised up David...concerning whom He testified and said, "I have found David...a man after My heart, who will do all My will..." (Acts 13:22; NAS)

Paragraph N., David's failures are so recorded, there are so many of his sins recorded. My guess is, David has more individual sins, I have never, I do not know for sure but at a quick read I think he probably had more individual sins than any one person that God cataloged and described in the Bible. Yet at the end of David's life, here it is in Acts 13, this is a 1,000 years after David died, Paul the apostle is talking about David. God's testimony a 1,000 years later was, David did all the will of God, David did all the will of God.

Here it goes again, Paul did you not know the life of David or the life of Abraham? Paul might go, no no that is not the problem. I knew the life of David and the life of Abraham, I just knew the heart of God and you did not. David did all the will of God. I go, he did? Wow, well if he did, I, this works then. I mean it is a 1,000 years later, God said, he did the whole thing, he served My purpose in his generation.

II. WE ARE BEAUTIFUL TO GOD EVEN IN OUR WEAKNESS (4:1-5)

- A. After the Bride's season of discipline (3:1-2), the King declared that she was beautiful to Him. The Holy Spirit gives a trumpet blast to our heart, "Behold! You are beautiful, and I love you."

¹Behold, you are fair [beautiful], My love! Behold, you are fair! (Song 4:1)

Top of page three, well beloved we are beautiful to God even in our weakness. I am talking to sincere believers, again some people will take this to go validate, they will just go live in immorality, they will go live in this, they will go live in that, and they will say, hey He likes me. What difference does it make? That is not the context I am talking about, I am talking about that He sees the cry, the heart of His people to get free of those things, to resist them, to come through them, to walk in full obedience. As they are stumbling along the way He enjoys the relationship. He does not enjoy the compromise but He is saying, I see the cry, I see the cry of your heart, I see the longing for full obedience, I see that virtue in you.

He calls her beautiful, I mean Song of Solomon 4 is right after the discipline season of Song of Solomon 3, He says, you are beautiful. Wait, should He not be calling her beautiful maybe in Song of Solomon 8, not in Song of Solomon 4, that is too early to call her beautiful. Well He called her beautiful back in Song of Solomon 1 because each chapter she gets more and more mature and she gets in deeper relationship with the Lord as the storyline unfolds throughout the book.

- B. The King highlighted eight character traits that the Lord wants to develop in His Bride (4:1-5).
1. Dove's eyes: eyes of single-minded devotion and loyalty to the Lord
 2. Hair like goats: dedication to God (Hair may point to submission or to a Nazirite dedication.)
 3. Teeth like shorn sheep: chewing the meat of the Word
 4. Lips like scarlet: godly speech that calls forth God's redemptive (scarlet) purposes in others
 5. Kisses of the mouth: intimacy with God in receiving the kisses of His Word
 6. Veiled temples (cheeks/countenance): emotions empowered by the grace of God
 7. Neck like David's tower: setting our will to obey God without any stiff-necked resistance
 8. Breasts like fawns: the power to edify and nurture others with the milk of the Word

Paragraph eight, the King of course in the spiritual interpretation is the Lord Himself, highlights eight traits. Again, they are physical traits to King Solomon in the natural love song which is a valid way to read this book by the way but there is spiritual traits in the spiritual interpretation. Every one of these traits they start off as budding virtues, as just a little bit as a seed and they grow forth. He calls them forth as beautiful, that is the point I am making.

Because He says, you are beautiful and He gives eight examples of her beauty in these, the spiritual interpretation but again she is not mature yet, these, she is not beautiful yet. He goes, yes she is, I see the cry of her heart. Again on the additional notes you can look more at those eight and see some of the interpretations. Again you can, there is liberty to interpret some of these characteristics different ways, that is not the point as long as they, as long as they validate New Testament principles, you are on safe ground.

III. THE BRIDE'S FEARLESS COMMITMENT (4:6-8)

- A. The Bride responded to the affirmations of her beauty (4:1-5) by setting her heart to obey the King by going to the mountain with Him (4:6). She walked this out fully in Song 5-8.

6Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away, I will go my way to the mountain of myrrh and to the hill of frankincense. (Song 4:6)

1. The King called her to rise up to go to the mountains with Him in Song 2:10. She refused Him, telling Him to turn and go to the mountains without her (2:17).

8He comes leaping upon the mountains...¹⁰My Beloved spoke...“Rise up...and come away...”¹⁷Until the day breaks...turn, my Beloved, and be like a gazelle...upon the mountains... (Song 2:8-17)

2. In Song 3:2, she agreed to arise to go to the city, but not the mountains. Here, she commits to obey by going to the mountains (4:6).

2“I will rise now...and go about the city...I will seek the One I love.” (Song 3:2)

Roman numeral three, well now we have gone from Song of Solomon 4:1-5. Now we have gone to verse 6, look what she says in verse 6. Until the day breaks and the shadows flee away I will go my way to the mountain. What? I will go to the mountain. See remember in Song of Solomon 2 He said, go to the mountain. She goes, no I am too afraid.

Song of Solomon 3 she goes, I am being disciplined, I will go the city. How about that? I will go to the city but not the mountain. He goes, no I want you at the mountain. She is so touched by the affirmation of Song of Solomon 4:1-5 that we just kind of breeze through. She goes, I will go to the mountain, if this is how You see me, I know I can do this with You. I will go the mountain, I will challenge the comfort zone, I will meet You in the place of full obedience. I am not going to draw back anymore. What a statement, I will go to the mountain. Paragraph A., the Bride responded to the affirmations of her beauty in those eight different budding ways. She says, I am going to obey, I am going to do it. Now the rest of the book, Song of Solomon 5-8 is walking out that full obedience, going to the mountain, which means that out of the comfort zone, fully obeying God, and no more negotiating at all. I will do the hard, the difficult, I will do the, that which is mundane and out of the way that I get no affirmation from anybody. I will obey You in secret, I will serve in secret in the little out of the way place even.

A lot of folks will serve as long as there is audience but will they serve, I mean like I think of our folks that do the, in just our little world here, they do the shuttles and all those things. I mean I see them sometimes on that parking lot and five below zero and they are serving week after week, there is a whole core of them. I go, why are you doing this? I have asked a few of them. Because that is, we want to serve. I think, that is pretty intense. Now again there is a 1,000 examples in everyday life and at the marketplace, in the neighborhood that is not related to the church ministries but I am just talking about the out of the way places.

Well just a quick review, number one remember back in Song of Solomon 2, I have already said it but I will say it again, back in Song of Solomon 2, to get a review of how significant this is when she says, I will go to the mountain. You got to, those that are new with tonight, you got to know the storyline because back in Song of Solomon 2:8 He was leaping on the mountains, that was new. She had never seen Him leap on mountains. Verse 10, He says, rise up and come on the mountains with Me. Verse 17, she goes, no. She goes, turn, You go to the mountains, I am staying under the apple tree, in the garden, you know at the table. No, I am staying here, You go there. She says no to Him when she says turn.

In Paragraph two, she is under a season of discipline. She goes, okay, Song of Solomon 3:2, I will go to the city. He said, well I did not say the city, I said the mountain. I mean that city, that is the beginning, you are taking the right steps. Here Song of Solomon 4:6 the verse we are looking at, she goes, I will go all the way.

Now let's look at verse 6 again. He says, I will go My way, notice the phrase My way, we are going to look at that in a minute, to the mountain of myrrh, mountain of myrrh is the key phrase, and I will go to the hill of frankincense or the hill of incense where, and that speaks of the prayer ministry actually, we will get there in a moment.

- B. Myrrh: This is a costly burial spice that has a great fragrance and speaks of Jesus' death. He ascended the mountain of myrrh when He went to the cross. We are also to take up our cross to deny ourselves as we ascend the mountain of myrrh to obey God's will (Lk. 9:26).

Paragraph B., so she goes, I will go to the mountain of myrrh. We know that myrrh throughout the book, in the Old Testament one of the ways it is used, it is a costly burial spice that has great fragrance. It smells beautiful and they use it as a burial spice at funerals. It speaks of Jesus' death, that Jesus, it is the death that He died, He embraced that myrrh. We talked about that a few other sessions so I will not spend time on that.

The frankincense speaks in the Scripture, it is incense. Just think of incense, make it a little simpler word, speaks of prayer throughout the Bible. It is the incense that arises in heaven, the incense is the prayers of the saints.

- C. Frankincense: Incense throughout Scripture speaks of prayer (Ps. 141:2; Rev. 5:8). We ascend the hill of frankincense or engage in prayer to receive strength to ascend the mountain of myrrh.

So we ascend, look at Paragraph C., we ascend the hill of frankincense. In other words by engaging in prayer we appropriate the strength to ascend the mountain of myrrh. We are never going to ascend the mountain of myrrh, we are not going to be able to sustain those big challenges, the mountain of myrrh where there is death to self involved in it, there is risk. We are never going to be able to ascend the mountain of myrrh without the hill of frankincense, without the prayer engagement, without that interaction with the Lord.

- D. I will go: The maiden makes a firm decision to leave the comfort zone to go up the mountain or to walk in all God's will without fear. How beautiful to Jesus are the words, "I will go...!"

Paragraph D., she goes, I will go to the mountain, I will go. How beautiful to Jesus are those words. Yes, I will do it, I will do it. I am not talking about going to the kind of the out of the way ministry trip that is kind of real strange or real different for three weeks or four weeks. I am not talking about something like that. When I am talking about going on the mountain I am talking about with the way we carry our heart in our lifestyle, not just a three week thing or a weekend thing, that kind of thing.

I am talking about something, I am going to obey You, I am going to bring myself into a deeper alignment with Your heart and it might cost me my reputation to be true, it may cost me money, it may be risky, it may not go good, I may look bad, I might get criticized, it may be hard and out of the way of affirmation, I am going to do it, I am going to do it. I am going to be faithful to the will of God in my life, that is what it is talking about.

- E. My way: Each of us has a “tailor-made path” that the Lord has chosen specifically for each of us to walk. “Our way” to the mountain involves difficulties unique to God’s calling on each life.

Now when she goes in Paragraph E., I will go my way. Everyone of us has a tailored made path that the Lord has chosen for each of you to walk in. Your way to the mountain of myrrh is different than my way. Even though we might even engage in the same calling or we might engage in the same activity it is different how I do it from how you do it.

It is when, you know in conversations I get asked by young people, how many hours do you do this and how many hours do you do that? How much money do you do this? How much do you give there? I go, I do not want to tell you those things and I do not want to tell you not because I am trying to be humble because I like my answers, I mean I feel at peace with the answers, I actually like them. I do not want to not tell you the details to be hidden or to be humble, that is not even the point. I do not want you to try to go my way to the mountain, I want you to find your way.

Because my way forty years later from your way, it just may not work for you at all. My way may end up throwing you to a tailspin. When I was younger I told everybody everything and then I saw that as I got older I saw more and more young people trying to do exactly what I was doing. They do not have my calling, they do not have the same history, they do not have the same assignment, they do not have the same personality, they do not have the same life circumstances trying to do the same thing exactly, it does not work.

You go your way to the mountain, there is a way you will carry your heart. The Lord and you will find your way together, it is a very important principle. We can be inspired by other people's dedication but the practical application, it just will not work exactly because even your own way will change over the months and years and the Lord will adjust it as you go.

- F. The King called the Bride to come with Him from the mountains of Lebanon (4:8). With her new commitment to go to the mountain (4:6), she now carried her heart as a loyal Bride. Over the next four chapters in the Song, we see the development and expression of her maturity in love.

⁸Come with Me from Lebanon, My spouse [Bride], with Me from Lebanon. Look from the top of Amana...from the lions' dens, from the mountains of the leopards. (Song 4:8)

Top of page four, well she says, I am going my way, let's do it. Okay, then He says in verse 8, I will take you up on it then, come with Me from Lebanon. Come with Me My Bride, look from the top of the mountain of Amana, that is a mountain range in Lebanon. I have the notes there, particularly on the additional notes, I have a lot more on this.

So the Lord says, okay you said you will go to the mountain in verse 6. Verse 8, come, let's do it. I you know just being humorous she goes, like now? Yeah, let's do it. Like oh, hum, okay, let's do it, let's live that new dedication. Again it is not just in kind of an eccentric kind of outward one time event, it is a whole way of carrying your life with God that you are going to really obey Him with your time, your money, your passions, your words, what you do with your energy.

I will go to the mountain. He says, now notice this, you are looking from the top of the mountains with Me, you are going to have that bigger perspective from the place where I am at but there is lions and there is leopards up here. There is battles, there is devouring animals up here that will come against you up here, you have to know that.

- G. Lions and leopards: She must war against lions and leopards, which are animals that devour humans. Satan is a roaring lion (1 Pet. 5:8). This verse speaks of spiritual warfare (Eph. 6:10-12).

Paragraph G., the lions and leopards are animals that devour, this speaks of spiritual warfare. There is higher dedication always brings a greater demonic resistance, always. One preacher said, new levels new devils. There is a new level of dedication, a new level of believing God, there will be a new level of demonic attack against you. There is lions and leopards up on those mountains, lions and tigers and bears, oh no.

IV. THE RAVISHED HEART OF GOD (4:9-5:1)

- A. God's heart is ravished for His people (4:9). This verse touches one of the most significant truths in the Song—that God has deep desire for His people. A working definition of the ravished heart of God is: being filled with emotions of joy or delight because of one who is unusually attractive (Webster's Collegiate Dictionary).

⁹You have ravished My heart, My sister, My spouse; You have ravished My heart. (Song 4:9)

¹⁰I am my Beloved's, and His desire is toward me. (Song 7:10)

Okay, let's go down to Roman numeral four. You have ravished My heart. He now tells her, this is how I feel about what you are doing, You are ravishing My heart. Again she is, she has not matured yet, she has only said yes. She has not actually gone to the mountain, she just said, I will go. He goes, My heart is so touched by your resolve to obey Me with your money, your time, your energy, your reputation. Again you will serve in difficult places with no affirmation that is hard, that does not have any kind of those kudos that are so nice to get from other people.

He goes, you have ravished My heart, that response moves Me, is what He says. Beloved, this is not just a theoretical poem, His heart is ravished by you in your weakness. This is not Song of Solomon 5-8 where the maturity is all come to pass, she still is in the early stages but she is resolved.

This verse touches one of the most significant themes in the whole Song, if not the most significant theme, certainly one of the most if not the most, it is the theme of God's deep desire for His people. He loves the relationship, He loves the relationship.

A working definition of the ravished heart of God, I mean you could have a half a dozen good definitions. God's heart is filled with emotion of delight because of one who is unusually attractive, that is the Webster dictionary. A couple brought up a couple of those lines together from Webster. To be ravished is to filled with delight because of the unusual beauty, the Lord says, I have delight in the relationship, I see your weakness. He says, remember verse 1, you are beautiful. Then He gives eight virtues that she has not matured in because He is calling forth the seeds of her future full maturity.

Beloved, this touches your heart a little bit, it touches my heart a little bit. A little bit of this will go a long way and change us on the inside. This is what we want to lock into, this kind of reality, that He feels this way about us.

- B. God loves us in the same way that God loves God. The measure of the Father’s affection and love for Jesus is the measure of Jesus’ love for us. This is the ultimate statement of our worth.

As the Father loved Me, I also have loved you. (Jn. 15:9)

Paragraph B., probably the verse I say the most in sermons, messages, Jesus said, I will paraphrase, in the same way the Father loved Me, in the same intensity, that is how I love you. That is just unthinkable to me what the fullness of that could mean, it is so beyond what I can grasp. Jesus said, in the same intensity the Father loves Me that is how I feel about you.

He told them an hour or two later, and everyone of you will deny Me tonight. So My feeling for you is not based on some illusion of your maturity, you will all deny Me tonight. I want you to know, I love you like the Father loves Me and I will not change while you are growing in maturing and discovering your own weakness, I will not draw back from how I feel about you.

V. THE CHRISTIAN PARADIGM OF GOD

- A. The Christian paradigm of God is founded on the revelation of God’s tenderness and deep emotions of love. The idea of God as a tender Father and a passionate Bridegroom was a new thought in religious history in Jesus’ generation (see William Barclay’s commentary on Heb. 4).

Roman numeral five, the Christian paradigm of God. I got this from William Barclay's commentary, some of this, not all of it but a lot of it. I changed a few little ideas here or there, you can check it out yourself if you want, I just slipped a few ideas from him. It was brilliant, I read this many years ago and it so deeply touched me.

The Christian paradigm of God is found on revelation of God's tenderness, His deep emotions. The Christian paradigm, or paradigm obviously means perspective, the Christian point of view or paradigm of God is founded on the revelation of God's tenderness, on His deep emotions.

Now here is the idea that Barclay hit, he says, the idea of God being a tender Father, passionate Bridegroom was a new thought in religious history, 2,000 years ago. This was a new idea even though in the Hebrew prophets they had faint references to it but it was not something that took root in the Jewish mindset at all in any kind of prominent way.

- B. In Jewish tradition, what was most emphasized about God was that He is holy in the sense of being totally separate from sin. They did not think of a holy God as sharing human experience. They thought of God as incapable of sharing it simply because He is God. In other words, they saw God as being “above” sharing the human dilemma by the very definition of being God.

Paragraph B., in the Jewish tradition we are going back you know thousands of years, 4,000 years of Jewish tradition from Abraham was 4,000 years ago that the Jewish nation and people have existed. In the Jewish tradition, what was emphasized most about God is that He is holy. The idea He is totally separated from sin, that was the idea He is holy, He has no impurity. They did not think of God as holy as sharing human experience, they thought of Him as incapable of sharing human experience because He is holy, because He is God. He cannot really share our experience., He can observe it but He cannot share it with deep feelings.

- C. The Stoics were Greek philosophers who believed that God had no emotions for humans. They saw the main attribute of God as being apatheia, by which they meant God's inability to feel anything. They reasoned that if God felt sorrow or joy, then He would be vulnerable to being hurt and thus influenced or even controlled by what He felt. They believed that anyone who affected God's emotions would be greater than God for that moment.

The Stoics, Paragraph C., the Greek philosophers, the Stoics believed God had no emotion, He had no emotion at all. The main attribute they saw of God was apatheia, it was the Greek word apatheia, apathy. In other words the Stoics, the philosophers, their view of God, He was highlighted God's inability to feel. Here is why, they reasoned, if God was real happy or real sad, either one, positive or negative, if He was real happy or real sad if He had that ability He would be vulnerable to be hurt. If He could be happy He could be sad, if He could be sad He could be hurt and if He could be hurt He could be influenced by the one that hurt Him. If He is influenced He might be controlled by them. They said, it is impossible, God could never ever have emotions because if He had emotions and it was influence the person that influenced Him, influenced God for that one moment would be greater than God. So the Stoics said, no emotions, that was the Greek philosophy.

- D. The Epicureans, other Greek philosophers, believed that the gods lived detached, in eternal bliss. They lived in the intermediate world and were not aware of events occurring on earth.

The Epicureans, another group of Greek philosophers, they believed that the gods lived in a detached eternal bliss. It is not that He did not emotions, that He was in the end-between world, the nether world and that God was not even aware of the events on the earth, God was living all this pantheon of Greek gods, they were uninvolved, they were detached completely.

- E. The Jews understood God as a holy God separated from humans; the Stoics had an emotionless god and the Epicureans a detached god. Into this context of religious thought came the new idea of the Christian God who subjected Himself to human emotion and suffering (Heb. 4:15; 5:8).

So E., the Jews had a God who was separated from human feeling and experience, human experience. The Stoics had an emotionless god, the Epicureans had a detached god. It is into this context Jesus comes and goes, God is My Father, He is your Father. Father? Again that technically was in the, that was in the Old Testament but it was not a part of the Jewish mindset. He is a tender Father and I am God, I have become one of you, a human. I feel what you feel. Like, what is this? It was mind boggling new ideas in human, in religious thought in human history.

VI. JESUS' LOVE FOR HIS BRIDE (4:9-10)

- A. Jesus has great love for His Bride (4:9-10c). The maiden's two-fold identity as His sister and spouse/bride is emphasized seven times (4:8, 9, 10, 11, 12; 5:1, 2). Being called Jesus' spouse or Bride speaks of His desire for deep partnership with His people. And being Jesus' sister speaks of His humanity and His partnership with His people (Mt. 12:48-50; Heb. 2:11, 17).

⁹You have ravished My heart, My sister, My spouse [Bride]; You have ravished My heart with one look of your eyes, with one link of your necklace. ¹⁰How fair [beautiful] is your love, My sister, My spouse! How much better than wine is your love... (Song 4:9-10)

Top of page five, I mean how radical the message of Jesus of Nazareth calling us to His Father and calling us as a Bridegroom King to be His eternal companion forever starting the day we are born again. This is just unimaginable the full implications of this, unimaginable to our limited thinking right now. We are going to be blown away as we see this unfold when we stand before Him.

Beloved I do not want to wait until then, I want to get as much of this now, now. I have not gone that far, I have gone further than I use to be but I want to go further in this, this is absolutely worth everything, everything, everything, the pursuit of this. I know that you believe it, you would not be here tonight.

Well let's look at His love for His Bride in verse 9-10, let's look at again in verse 9. You have ravished My heart. He says it again, you have ravished My heart, I have this deep delight because of your unusual beauty to Me. Only God could look at people like you and me and the human race this way, He really feels this way. He says, with one look of your eye, with one link of your necklace I am ravished, one look of your eye, one link of your necklace.

Then He goes on and makes this dynamic statement, how beautiful is your love. Then He goes on and He says the opposite of what the Bride said, I mean He turns the phrase around. He says, how much better than wine is your love. Remember back in Song of Solomon 1, she goes, Your love Jesus is better than wine. He turns it, He goes, your love is better to Me than everything in this world of all creation that can exhilarate the human heart. I want your love more than all the grandeur and splendor of the world. He turns the phrase around on her. Beloved, it is not just that His love is better than anything this world can offer, He says to you, your love is better to Him than the splendor of anything that this world, the most glorious things that He could get from this world He wants you more than that. What a statement.

- B. With one look of your eyes: Jesus' heart moves with each "look of devotion and love" that we give Him. The very movements of our heart to love Him touches Him. Our obedience begins when we set our heart to obey Him, not just after we gain the full victory in a specific area.

Paragraph B., He says, one look in your eye, one look in your eyes. Jesus' heart is moved by each look of devotion or each look of devotion and love, however you want to say it. Each look of love and devotion, devotion and love that we give Him. The very movements of our heart touch Him.

You are in a difficult time, you are just quiet, you are not in a prayer room, you are driving in a car, you say, Lord I love You, I love You. The Lord says, that ravishes Me, the look of your eye, the movement of your heart, it moves Me. Lord it is, but I am just so fickle because I love You today and then in a few moments I am depressed and then I am questioning things and then I do not believe what You said then I am thinking of compromising to get ahead in another way. Ah but I do love You. He goes, no talk to Me, I love when You tell Me this.

The devil comes along and says, you hopeless hypocrite, just be quiet you hopeless hypocrite. When you say no, He is ravished, one look of my eye. Every movement of our heart, the very look of devotion that is in sincerity, the whole thing is in the context of that which is in sincerity with Him. I am not talking about just singing at a worship service, I am talking about singing at a worship service or being quiet in a worship service with a heart that is saying in truth, I love You. I am not as far along as I want to be but I really want to go there.

- C. With one link of your necklace: In Scripture, the neck can speak of the will that can be resistant (stiff-necked) or submissive. Spiritually, each link of her necklace may represent each individual response of obedience that we give the Lord. Each decision for love that we make moves Jesus' heart. He remembers every movement of love that our heart makes towards Him.

One link of your necklace, in Scripture the neck can often speak of the will, the will, our freewill. The neck can be stiff-necked or the neck can be submissive, there is a handful of illustrations where the neck means submission or the neck means rebellion. So it speaks of the, our freewill.

Here is the idea, spiritually every response, every link, every decision He says, it ravishes Me, it moves Me. Every link in that necklace, every act of your will that you recommit again and come up short, you recommit again and come up short, you recommit again. He says, every single link touches Me. He remembers every movement of your heart towards Him.

- D. How fair is your love: Because the Lord considers our love as beautiful in His sight, our life is defined as successful and great by this. Our obedience based in love brings great delight to Jesus.

Paragraph D., because the Lord considers our love as fair or beautiful. He says, how beautiful, the word fair and beautiful is interchangeably. He considers our love beautiful. He says, how beautiful is your love to Me. Beloved does this, I mean imagine what this does on the inside of us, as this touches us a little bit of this will go a long way.

- E. How much better than wine is your love: The King turned around her earlier statement when she cried out "For Your love is better than wine" (1:2). The wine metaphor speaks of that which exhilarates the heart. Wine in the context of a marriage speaks of a drink of celebration.

VII. THE BRIDE'S LIFE IN THE SPIRIT (4:10-15)

- A. The King had great pleasure in her heart (4:10-11).

¹⁰How much better than wine is your love, and the scent of your perfumes than all spices!

¹¹Your lips, O My spouse, drip as the honeycomb; honey and milk are under your tongue; and the fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon. (Song 4:10-11)

Roman numeral eight, I mean seven, then He goes on and He describes her life in the spirit. He says, verse 10, again how much better your, that wine is your love. I would rather have your love than all the splendor of this, of the grandeur of creation I would rather have your love. It is more, it is better than the wine of this world. He goes on now, He breaks it down, the scent of your perfumes is better than all spices. Your lips drip like honeycomb. The fragrance of your garments, so He gives three different facets of her love.

- B. The scent of your perfumes: This can refer to her mind being filled with God's Word. As the invisible fragrance of perfume expresses the inner quality of a plant, so our thoughts are the scent of our inner life. The "scent" of our perfumes speaks of our thoughts expressed to God in our prayers, meditation on the Word, and desire to obey (Ps. 141:2; Isa. 60:6; Rev. 5:8; 8:3-4).

B., He talks about the scent of your perfumes, this refers to her mind that is in agreement with the Word, is probably a better way to say it. The mind in agreement, filled with the Word but in agreement with the Word because the fragrance of a flower is that invisible fragrance of perfume expresses the inner quality of that plant. It is your inward thinking, it is your thoughts that He says, it is fragrant to Me. Not all of our thoughts are but He says, those thoughts that are in agreement with Me, they are like fragrant to Me.

- C. Your lips drip as the honeycomb: This speaks of her words as being sweet like honey when spoken to God in worship and prayer (2:14) and when blessing and encouraging others.

He says, your lips, Paragraph C., her lips speaks of her words as being sweet like honey. Whether you are worshipping, He says, your face is beautiful, your words are sweet. Remember He said that back in Song of Solomon 2:14? When you are encouraging one another or you are speaking words of blessing to a believer, an unbeliever anywhere, the Lord says, your words are like honey to Me, I am listening to you.

- D. The fragrance of your garments is like the fragrance of Lebanon: This refers to her deeds as fragrant before God. Garments speak of the Bride's acts of obedience (Rev. 19:7-8).

He goes on, He says, your deeds, Paragraph D., the fragrance of your garments. We know in the book of Revelation the garments are the acts of the saints, they are deeds. So He is talking about the way that she expresses her love, her thought, words, and deeds.

- E. The Bride's dedication to the King was described as a garden with a spring and fountain (4:12). The garden of a king was private. It was enclosed with a fence to keep animals from polluting it. A sealed up spring and fountain speak of an undefiled water supply, not polluted by animals.

¹²A garden enclosed is My sister, My spouse, a spring sealed up, a fountain sealed. (Song 4:12)

Paragraph E., this is one of the most amazing poetic verses, verse 12 on dedication, the Bride's dedication to the King. He goes, here is what you are like, you are like an enclosed garden to me, a sealed spring, a sealed fountain. Again you can read that more on the notes. A king's garden was private, it was enclosed, it had a fence because an open garden or an open fountain or source of water, it could be polluted by the animals. So it was sealed off, it was enclosed, they put a fence around it so only the king could enjoy it, it would not be polluted at all by the animals.

The water or the garden, He goes, your heart is like an enclosed garden. You shut the door to defilement, your heart to Me is like sealed springs that cannot be polluted by the wild animals that is guarded and kept for Me. Again I have a little bit more on the notes there.

- F. A description of the Bride's fruitfulness (4:13-14): The Bride's life and ministry was described as an orchard filled with fruits, plants, trees, and spices (4:13-14). This speaks of her fruitful life.

¹³Your plants are an orchard of pomegranates with pleasant fruits, fragrant henna with spikenard, ¹⁴spikenard and saffron, calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense, myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices. (Song 4:13-14)

- G. The Spirit's ministry in the Bride's life is described as a fountain, a well, and streams (4:15). These three sources of water can refer to the different ways we experience the Spirit in our lives.

¹⁵A fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and streams from Lebanon. (Song 4:15)

Paragraph G., the Spirit's ministry is now being described in three different ways, three different sources of water, describing three different ways we experience the Holy Spirit. Again I have a bit more of that on the notes.

VIII. THE BRIDE'S CRY TO EXPERIENCE AN INCREASE OF GOD'S PRESENCE (4:16)

- A. She now has enough confidence in God's goodness to offer this important two-fold prayer (4:16). She prayed for both the north winds of adversity and the south winds of blessing that the spices of grace might flow in her life. She knew that both played an important role in her life becoming a fragrant garden. Only God has the wisdom to know the right combination of the north and the south winds necessary in each season of our life.

¹⁶Awake, O north wind, and come, O south! blow upon my garden, that its spices may flow out. Let My Beloved come to His garden and eat its pleasant fruits... (Song 4:16)

Let's just bring this to an end here just in this next sixty seconds here. Now verse 16, Roman numeral eight. Now she has enough confidence, she has enough confidence in God's goodness. She goes, okay You love me that way, You love my thoughts, my words are like fragrance to You, my garments, my deeds are like perfume. She goes, O You love, You love so much about me. She goes, okay, verse 16.

She prays the most important prayer in the book. She goes, awake O North wind and come O South wind, blow on my garden that its spices may flow out. Let my Beloved come to His garden and eat its pleasant fruits. So she goes, awake North winds. The North winds were the cold winds of adversity. She goes, I am not afraid of trouble now, I am not afraid of the North winds because You love me and we are so connected. Awake O North winds, I am not troubled.

She says, awake O South winds, I want the blessing, the refreshing winds of the South. She knew that both dimensions, there are times we deny ourselves when there is times that are sacrificial, that are difficult in our obedience, that is the North winds. There is times where just everything is alive and fun, that is the sound winds. She knows both of them are important for fragrance to come out of the garden of her heart.

Notice what she says, you will have to read it carefully. She goes, my garden is now Your garden. For the first four chapters, we are at the end of Song of Solomon 4, it was my garden from this time on. The next four chapters it is Your garden. I am Yours from now on, wholly Yours.

The first four chapters is focused on her inheritance in Christ. The second four chapters, Christ' inheritance in her. Both of them are eternal and both of them are important. Some believers only think about their inheritance in Christ but beloved He has an inheritance in you. It is not just that He wants fragrance in your garden for your life to be mature, He says, I want your garden to be My garden. This is the turning point of the book right here, Song of Solomon 4:16.

Then He takes her on to Song of Solomon 5 where she is going to experience the North winds and He is going to see if she means it. She says, yes but that is for next week. Amen, let's stand.

B. Let my Beloved come to His garden: The garden of her heart became His garden. She now sees her life and ministry as His garden instead of hers. Jesus has an inheritance in the church (Eph. 1:18). This is the turning point in the Song. Song 1-4 is focused on us receiving our inheritance in God. Song 5-8 is focused on God receiving His inheritance in us.

C. The Bride now lives under the King's full ownership (5:1). Spiritually speaking, Jesus is now enjoying His inheritance as His people live under His ownership. Nine times He says "My" to depict His ownership of her life and ministry (three times in 5:1 and six in 5:2).

I have come to My garden, My sister, My spouse; I have gathered My myrrh with My spice; I have eaten My honeycomb with My honey; I have drunk My wine with My milk. Eat, O friends! Drink, yes, drink deeply, O beloved ones! (Song 5:1)

IX. QUESTIONS FOR SMALL-GROUP DISCUSSION (e.g., FCF FRIENDSHIP GROUPS)

1. Identify one point that inspired or challenged you. Why? What will you do differently to apply it?
2. Identify one point that you want to impart to a younger believer. Why? How will you approach this?
3. Identify one point that you would like to gain more understanding of. How will you seek to gain it?
